District Councillor

Dist. Cllr. Howitt-Cowan gave the following report:

- Willoughton NP was approved at Full Council.
- The Central Lincolnshire Local Plan Review is out for consultation, ends on 18th July.
- WLDC budget consultation will be starting soon.
- There are plans for a cinema in Gainsborough. It will be in a central location and will incorporate a post office, travel agency and restaurant. A new refuse depot has also been approved.
- There is going to be a continuous walk along the riverside.
- The new hotel in Gainsborough should have a restaurant shortly.
- Corringham School is actually a church school and not a county school. The Enforcement Team are looking into this.

Reports

Village Hall

Cllr. Blades reported as follows.

- The entrance of the village hall has been painted. Other general tidying activities are planned.
- Unfortunately the treasure hunt had to be cancelled due to poor weather.

Neighbourhood Plan

Cllr. Semley reported that a second grant of £1,600 had been approved. Cllr. Semley understood from Locality that the group was not eligible for the extra funding for the 'call for sites' exercise. There was some debate about this and Cllr. Howitt-Cowan agreed to seek advice from WLDC and report back. Cllr. Semley is also investigating other avenues for grant funding including 'Awards for All'. The draft Character Study is now complete and available to look at. Some minor queries and corrections have been identified, including the map showing the designated area.

Matters for consideration

Newsletter

The Clerk produced the draft newsletter. It was agreed to add the Neighbourhood plan call for sites information. Cllr. Semley would arrange printing once finalised.

New Speed Indication Device (SID)

Cllr. Arthy had done some research on various options and reported his findings as follows:

SID with solar panel - £3,244 (£300 cheaper without data)

To fix the existing SID with a solar panel - £1,148

It was agreed to defer decision until it was understood all the associated costs of a new SID and requirements from LCC Highways. Clerk to chase Cllr. Perraton-Williams and invite to the next meeting.

Benches

The purchase of further benches to be deferred until total cost of purchase of a new SID is established.

Tidying of Graves at the Cemetery

It was agreed to earmark a day to tidy the 'old' graves in the cemetery. It was also suggested that some wild flowers be sown in part of the cemetery. Cllr Sims to make arrangements for the grave tidying and confirm date. Cllr. Stanser suggested involving the school children in creating the wild flower area. It was agreed that he liaise with the PTFA. Agenda item for September.

Naming of Proposed New Road (off East Lane)

After some deliberation it was agreed to suggest 'North Lane' as the name of the new road.
